JANUARY

Silent Dance Party Friday, January 12th

Put on your sanitized noise cancelling wireless headphones, select from one of the three pre-set channels, adjust the volume to your personal liking and sing and dance to your favorite tunes. Whether you enjoy Disco and Motown, Classic Rock, Party Favorites or all three, you will find yourself dancing and singing all night long. Those without headphones won't hear the music (hence the event name) and can enjoy conversation and will likely be entertained by those singing (probably out of tune). Snacks will be provided. Beverages are not permitted to be brought in as a cash-only bar is available. Dancing and seating will be provided inside as well outside the Ballroom. Ballroom doors open at 6:30pm and the dance begins at 7pm. $14 per person. Adult guests welcome.

Solivita Club Expo Saturday, January 13th

If you are new to Solivita or a seasoned resident, want to make new friends or are interested in more information about a club, plan to attend this expo. You can meet the clubs' representatives, ask questions, sign up for membership or purchase tickets to their events. Solivita Clubs interested in having a table must RSVP to Activities by going to SolivitaHOA.com Home Page and select this event date or by email at SolivitaActivities@CastleGroup.com (no phone calls). In the Ballroom and Mosaics from 10am-1pm. Adult guests welcome.

Wine Down Concert Wednesday, January 17th

Let's "wine" down with complimentary, live entertainment from 6:30pm-8:30pm on the Chess Lawn by The Grille. Listen to Rick Melvern Trio, who will sing and play Cool Blues and Motown music! A food concession and cash only bar will be provided. BYOC or B (bring your own chair or blanket). No coolers, tents, tables or golf cart parking on the chess lawn or up to the sidewalk by the golf course lake. Guests of all ages welcome. Rain date is TBD.

Curbside Cuisine Thursday, January 25th

Bring in the New Year by trying something new. Roam around and peruse the variety of tasty food and dessert truck menus. Food trucks do not sell drinks; however, we have a cash-only bar that sells beer, wine, soda and bottled water. DJ Irwin brings the tunes and seating is provided. Attendees are not permitted to bring alcohol, smoking is prohibited and no pets in the seating area. Free admission. Food trucks open for service from 4pm-7pm in the Farmer's Market area in Freedom Park. Guests of all ages welcome.

Laser Light Outdoor Concert Friday, January 26th

Check out the coolest thing ever seen in the Solivita night skies - an outdoor event that will be 'Music for your Eyes, and Ears'! Watch the laser light beams dance and move over the night sky to the beat of all of your favorite, high energy, chart topping music hits from every decade performed by the No Filter band. The opening act will be DJ John from 5:30-6:30pm and the headliner 90-minute show follows. Seating is general admission, but BYOC (bring your own chair). Early entrance and a plastic folding chair is provided to the Early Open Show Seating ticket holders (EOSS). You are welcome to bring your own snacks and blanket, but no tents, alcoholic beverages or coolers are permitted. A cash only bar, several propane warmers and golf cart shuttle service to the Ballroom restrooms will be available. The event will be held in the Freedom Park parking lot by the Softball Field. Doors open for EOSS ticket holders at 5:30pm and General Admission doors open at 5:40pm. General admission is $30 and EOSS is $35 per person. Adult guests welcome, limited to 400 attendees. In case of rain or extreme cold weather, the show will move to the Ballroom. FREEDOM PARK RECREATION PLAY WILL PAUSE AT 4PM.

FEBRUARY EVENT TICKETS GO ON SALE WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 3RD AND MARCH EVENT TICKETS GO ON SALE THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 1ST BOTH AT 9AM ON THE SOLIVITAOA.COM HOME PAGE.

FEBRUARY CONTINUED

The evening starts with serenading music by a strolling violinist, while you enjoy one well-level drink and an hors d'oeuvres station including pimento cheese and bacon crostini and jumbo lump crab salad tartlet topped with salmon caviar. At your table, you will be served a bundle of romaine hearts, English cucumbers, shaved prosciutto, heirloom tomatoes, shaved parmesan cheese, parmesan crostini and champagne vinaigrette. Along with your salad will be an assorted bread basket. Before dinner is presented, choose to have a glass of Sauvignon Blanc or Cabernet Sauvignon or a non-alcoholic drink along with your main course. The dinner entree CHOICES will be either: (S) Garlic buttered cold water lobster tail (B) 10oz grilled ribeye steak topped with Chianti red wine demi and cippolini onions; (V) Grilled portobello mushroom topped with arugula, roasted red peppers, artichokes, asparagus, melted goat cheese and pesto aioli. Each entrée is paired with garlic buttered twice baked potato and boursin creamed spinach. The final course is a pound cake topped with white chocolate, strawberries, and strawberry glaze, Moscato wine and coffee service.

While you enjoy your dinner courses, enjoy the music of Kathleen Kane and the 007 Band. This event will be limited to 128 guests seated at mostly six person tables or at the four tables that seat eight. Purchase limit of 6 tickets per resident. Ballroom doors open and cocktails begin at 6pm. Dinner service begins at 6:30pm. $75 per person. Semi-formal attire. RESIDENTS ONLY.

Mardi Gras Parade & Street Party Tuesday, February 13th

Who wants to catch some beads and party outside in the street? Beginning at 5pm, Solivita Clubs will be selling assorted food and desserts for cash-only, in the Bistro roundabout and on the Ballroom side road. DJ Irwin will be playing music inside the Ballroom from 5:15pm-6:30pm (the dance floor will be set with staging for dance performances).

At 6pm, we will begin our annual bead throwing parade down the Village Center. Parade participants in golf carts, on motorcycles, walking with dogs or with club groups are to line-up in the Farmer's Market area in the Freedom Park parking lot starting at 5:15pm. Cars are not permitted. At 6pm, food trucks will be in the Welcome Center courtyard.

After the parade, let the good times roll with a street party outside the Billiards Gallery featuring DJ Joe Magic and strolling entertainment. Behind the Bistro Café will be the Solivita Swing Band. From 6:30pm-8:30pm watch Solivita club and fitness class dance performances in the Ballroom. Drinks can be purchased at several cash-only bars.

Free entry. Guests of all ages are welcome, but NO dogs are permitted to attend the street party. RAIN OR SHINE. VEHICLE TRAFFIC ON VILLAGE DRIVE FROM THE BALLROOM TO THE PRO SHOP WILL CLOSE AT 3PM, EXCEPT FOR VENDOR SET UP.

Wine Down Concert Wednesday, February 21st

Let's "wine" down with complimentary, live entertainment from 6:30pm-8:30pm on the Chess Lawn by The Grille. Listen to Shelley Hicks and DJ Irwin, who will sing and play R&B, Soul and Jazz music! A food concession and cash only bar will be provided. BYOC or B (bring your own chair or blanket). No coolers, tents, tables or golf cart parking on the Chess Lawn or up to the sidewalk by the golf course lake. Guests of all ages welcome. Rain date is TBD.

Curbside Cuisine Thursday, February 22nd

Fall in love with the food trucks that roll in this month. Food trucks do not sell any drinks; we have a cash-only bar for beer, wine, soda and bottled water. DJ Steve will bring the music and seating is provided. Attendees are not permitted to bring alcohol, smoking is prohibited and no pets in the seating area. Free admission. Food trucks open for service from 4pm-7pm by the white tent in the Freedom Park parking lot. Guests of all ages welcome.

Prince Tribute Show Thursday, February 29th

The band, Red Corvette, developed instant chemistry and became a fan favorite; often getting standing ovations at the close of their sets. The lead singer, Donny T, is a trained dancer with a degree in musical theatre. He captivates the audience from the second he utters the words "dearly beloved" and the band kicks off "Let's Go Crazy." The band plays all the hit songs and Donny delivers all the classic Prince moves, splits, jumps, and spins with style and finesse! Red Corvette is committed to honoring the legacy of Prince and his music by slamming every time they hit the stage. There will be two shows: 5pm and 7:30pm. Ballroom doors open for Early Open Show Seating (EOSS) 30 minutes before the show and General Admission doors open 25 minutes before the show begins. General Admission is $25 and EOSS is $30 per person. RESIDENTS ONLY.
